

Traditional baroque music presented in planetaria and beyond.

The concerts offer beautiful baroque music set in the context of aptly chosen words and accompanied by a star spectacular with - at its heart - the blue planet earth. A fascinating performance of glittering moments and personal flair will be presented.

- ❖ Live music with two musicians – flute & harpsichord
- ❖ Live switch to ISS cameras (International Space Station)
- ❖ Concert under star-spectacle of a planetarium with simulated flights through galaxies and around earth - or with projections of pictures taken by NASA and ESA on a screen.
- ❖ Indoor for planetaria, conferences etc.
- ❖ Outdoor for events und festivals
- ❖ Projections viable with screen or just with white walls.
- ❖ Projector and laptop then required to show the pictures.
- ❖ Microphones required for larger spaces.
- ❖ Duration 90 minutes

Take a seat - enjoy and dream ...

Flute - Roswitha Meyer
 Harpsichord - Tilmann Albrecht
 Setting of images & fulldome projections - Roswitha Meyer, Benjamin Husheer, Dr. Monika Staesche
 Conception in general - Roswitha Meyer

*"That's where life is... that's where all the good stuff is."
 Astronaut Loren Acton*

STARDUST SINFONIE

Contact: Roswitha Meyer
 + 49 (0) 160 - 221 7740
 roswitha@stardust-sinfonie.de www.stardust-sinfonie.de
 Member of IPS Int. Planetarium Society Inc.

03/01/2018

Images CC-licence ESO, ESA, NASA, Unsplash

